By law, non-profit organizations cannot provide a donor with the dollar value of an In-Kind gift. Such valuations when applicable, relative to "fair market value" of In-Kind gifts, need to be professionally assessed and certified elsewhere—if they can be—and that is the responsibility of the donor. If you simply purchased something on behalf of the church and want to donate that item, attach a copy of any receipts and keep the originals for your tax records.

You may attach a copy of receipts, if applicable.
